A BILL

To establish the Future of Local News Committee to examine and report on the role of local news gathering in sustaining democracy in the United States and the factors contributing to the demise of local journalism, and to propose policies and mechanisms that could reinvigorate local news to meet the critical information needs of the people of the United States in the 21st century.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Future of Local News
3 Act”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds and declares the following:

6 (1) The United States of America was founded
7 on the press freedom principle enshrined in the First 8 Amendment to the Constitution, declaring that 9 “Congress shall make no law . . . abridging the 10 freedom of speech, or of the press . . .”.

11 (2) Democracy demands wisdom and vision in 12 its citizens, and an informed citizenry depends on 13 accurate and unbiased news reporting to inform the 14 people’s judgments.

15 (3) Thomas Jefferson famously and wisely
16 wrote, “[W]ere it left to me to decide whether we 17 should have a government without newspapers or 18 newspapers without a government, I should not hesi-
19 tate a moment to prefer the latter.”.

20 (4)(A) According to research by the University
21 of North Carolina School of Media and Journalism,
22 Center for Innovation and Sustainability in Local 23 Media:

24 (i) The United States has lost more than 25 2,100 local print outlets since 2004.

10 (iv) More than half of all United States
11 newspapers have changed owners in the past
12 decade, and in 2018 just 25 companies owned 13 two-thirds of all daily newspapers.

14 (v) Of the surviving 6,700 newspapers in 15 the United States, at least 1,000 qualify as 16 “ghost newspapers”, or newspapers “whose re-
17 porting staffs are so significantly reduced that 18 they can no longer provide much of the break-
19 ing news or public service journalism that once 20 informed readers about vital issues in their 21 communities”.

22 (vi) Rural counties are among the counties
23 most deeply impacted. More than 500 of the 24 2,100 newspapers that have closed or merged
25 since 2004 have been in rural counties.

1 (B) According to the Pew Research Center,
2 total newsroom employment (meaning in newspapers,
3 television, radio, and digital) dropped by 4 roughly 25 percent from 2008 to 2018, while the 5 plunge in newspaper newsrooms alone was much
6 worse, at 47 percent.

7 (C) According to the program “On the Media”
8 of WNYC Studios, beat reporting, meaning the day-
9 to-day coverage of a particular field that allows a
10 journalist to develop expertise and cultivate sources,
11 has been gutted.

12 (D) Freedom of Information Act requests sub-
13 mitted by local newspapers to local, State, and Fed-
14 eral agencies fell by nearly 50 percent between 2005
15 and 2010, demonstrating a significant drop in the 16 extent to which reporters request government
17 records.

18 (E) According to the Pew Research Center,
19 newspapers alone lost more than $35,000,000,000 in 20 advertising revenue between 2004 and 2018.

21 (F) A 2018 study by American Indian Media
22 Today found that the number of American Indian
23 print media sources has shrunk dramatically in re-
24 cent years, from 700 media outlets in 1998 to only 25 200 in 2018.

1 (5) According to the Native American Journalists Association, Tribal news outlets are often dependent on Tribal governments for funding, but most Tribal news outlets lack the policy structure necessary to fully protect journalistic independence.

6 (6) As a result, freedoms of speech and press among Tribal nations are inconsistent, as Tribal media journalists report experiencing punitive budgetary restrictions, censorship, required prior approval of content, and workplace harassment in pursuit of Tribal reporting.

12 (7) In its 2019 call-to-action report, “Losing the News: The Decimation of Local Journalism and the Search for Solutions”, PEN America proposed “a major reimagining of the local news space, in which local reporting is re-conceptualized as a public good”, calling on society and government to urgently address the alarming demise of local journalism.

19 (8) Half a century ago, Congress perceived that the commercial television industry would not on its own provide the educational and public interest broadcasting that was appropriate and necessary for the country, and, informed by an independent report prepared by the Carnegie Commission on Educational Television, saw fit to create the Corporation

1 for Public Broadcasting, which has since ensured
2 that radio and television include public interest edu-
3 cational and reporting programs, using annually ap-
4 propriated funds.

5 (9) In order to determine an appropriate course
6 of action to preserve and sustain local news across
7 the United States, including in all States, territories,
8 insular communities, and Tribal areas, it is desirable
9 to establish a Federal advisory committee on the fu-10 ture of local news to prepare a report that would 11 make recommendations to Congress.

12 SEC. 3. FUTURE OF LOCAL NEWS COMMITTEE.

3 tions, in addition to any other proposals deemed ap-
4 propriate, may explore the possible creation of a new
